Forecast for Wednesday 31 Aug 2022

Weather: Some early mist and fog in the valleys will clear quickly through Wednesday leaving a mostly dry day. There will be scattered cloud through the morning bringing a chance of a few light showers at times, mainly in the east. This cloud will break up into the afternoon leaving plenty of prolonged sunshine. Staying dry into the evening and overnight with clear skies.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 600m: 70% increasing to 90% by midday.

Low cloud and visibility: Locally very poor visibility in any early mist and fog. This will lift and clear through the morning, however it may cover some slopes and summits for a time, with bases 400-600m. Any cloud will continue to lift and break up to be above the summits by midday. Otherwise good visibility through the day, although some distant hills appearing hazy.
